THE CUNNINGHAM FAMILY IN SCOTLAND, IRELAND AND AMERICA

Cunningham Family History is bound up in the Story of the Scotch Irish.

During the reign of Queen Elizabeth the Irish gave much trouble; and after James I came to the English Throne the Irish Earls of Tyrone conspired against the King and his Government. James I declared these Earls outlaws, their estates were confiscated, and about 200,000 acres of land seized by the Crown. James I, being Scotch and Protestant, offered this land for settlement to Scotch Protestants with the stipulation that they remove to Ireland within four years. The Irish, who were Catholics, very naturally resented the coming of the Scotch Presbyterians, but there was comparative peace while James I lived. James I's son, Charles I, did not protect the Scotch settlers in Ireland, and they were much persecuted. The Irish made a second insurrection during the protectorate of Cromwell, and he confiscated six counties in the Province of Ulster. Antrim was just twenty miles across the water from Scotland. It was good land, and the Scotch settled ten counties: Down, Donegal, Antrim, Londonderry, etc. But Cromwell died and persecution again fell on the Scotch in Ireland. From 1661 to 1774 they came to America in great numbers. As many as six ship loads a week are reported as arriving at the port of Philadelphia. They settled in Chester County, Pa. (Chester County being later divided into Chester, Lancaster, York and Adams Counties). They made a settlement in Buck's County where they started the famous Log College. Another body located at the Fork of the Delaware in Northampton County and Paxtang, Derry and Hanover in Dauphin County, but perhaps the greatest number of all settled in the Cumberland Valley.

From 1771 to 1773 25,000 of these Scotch Irish Presbyterians were driven from Ireland and found a home in America. They brought with them their Ministers—learned men, some of them of Noble blood, and most of them graduates of Edinburgh University. Where the Scotch Irish settled they built churches and hand in hand with the Church was built the School House.

The Scotch Irish who came to America in search of Liberty were the first and most sturdy in resisting English tyranny in the reign of George III. It is said that had it not been for the Scotch Irish of Pennsylvania, Virginia and the Carolinas there would have been no Revolutionary War.

Before removing to Ireland the Cunninghams lived in Ayrshire, Scotland. They were celebrated for their physical prowess, they were extremely clannish, and a feud existed between the Cunninghams and Montgomeries. Much blood was shed in this quarrel, but the breach was finally healed in the marriage of a Cunningham and a Montgomery. In feudal times the Cunningham Clan was ruled, or led, by Earl Cunningham.

HISTORY

CUNNINGHAM FAMILY

DESCENDANTS OF

John Cunningham and his wife, Elizabeth, who emigrated to America from the Scotch Settlement in the North of Ireland about the year 1748

John Cunningham-1 and Elizabeth, his wife, came to America from the North of Ireland about the year 1748, bringing with them three sons: Paul-2, Francis-2 and Robert-2. They probably had two daughters, for James Cunningham-3, son of Robert-2, often spoke of his cousins, Doctors May-3, (two brothers) who practiced medicine in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. One of them, Dr. Arthur May-3, was in his time an eminent surgeon, and was called great distances to perform operations. Being cousins of James Cunningham-3 they must have been sons of a daughter of John Cunningham-1. Furthermore, James Cunningham-3 had an uncle, John Lyttle-2. This connection could have existed only through the marriage of John Lyttle to a daughter of John Cunningham-1. John Cunningham-1 died July 4, 1776, aged 84. His wife Elizabeth, died in 1775, aged 86.

PAUL CUNNINGHAM-2

Paul Cunningham emigrated to South Carolina. He afterwards lived in Hawkins County, North Carolina, and in Knox County, Tennessee. He was married three times, and was the father of eleven children. Five of the children, John-3, Robert-3, Paul-3, Elizabeth-3, and Nancy-3 died before their father. The names of the other children were James-3, Alexander-3, Sarah Ann-3 and Jean-3. Of these children of Paul Cunningham we have little definite knowledge. John-3, the eldest, died of a wound received at Ramsour's Mill where 435 Continentals defeated 1,000

Tories. Elizabeth-3 died in 1789. Alexander-3 was wounded in an Indian fight. He lived at Knoxville, Tennessee, and left two sons, Wedale-4 and Alfred-4. Paul-3 was killed by Indians after killing three. He left two children, Paul-4 and Margaret-4. James-3 married Margaret, daughter of Andrew Cunningham and lived in Tennessee. Andrew Cunningham was no relative. He lived in St. Clair County, Alabama. It is interesting to note here that four of Andrew Cunningham's family married Cunninghams. Mary married Francis Cunningham-2, Paul's-2 brother; Rachel married Francis-3, a son of Paul-2; Margaret married James-3, another son of Paul-2; and David married Paul's-2 daughter Jean-3. Francis-3 married Rachel, daughter of Andrew Cunningham and had six children-4, who all went to Ohio.

Sarah Ann-3, married Thomas Anderson, who lived near Knoxville, Tenn. They had a daughter Betsy-4.

FRANCIS CUNNINGHAM-2

Francis Cunningham-2 lived at Long Cane, Gresham's Mills, Little River, Abbeville District, South Carolina. He was at one time possessed of considerable property. He lost much of it through the fitting out of an expedition against the Indians, he having been commissioned to do this by the state government, but he unwisely paid the expenses from his own good money, the government rewarding him by paying him in worthless paper. He was twice married. By his first wife his children were John-3, James-3, Betty-3 and Mary-3. His second wife was Mary, daughter of Andrew Cunningham. They were married in 1785, and had seven children, Isabella-3, Andrew-3, Margaret-3, Rachel-3, Agnes-3, Frances Steel-3 and Robert-3. Of the older children John-3 and James-3 went to Louisiana. Betty-3 married a man by the name of Ghant and lived near her father. Mary-3 married and went to Georgia.

ROBERT CUNNINGHAM-2

Born 1740—Died September 14, 1832.

Robert Cunningham-2 was born in Ireland in 1740 and was eight years old when the family came to America. In 1768 he married Martha Watt, in Chester County, Pennsylvania. Martha Watt was born in 1745, and died September 27, 1832.

Martha Watt, wife of Robert Cunningham-2, was the second daughter of David Watt, Sr., and his wife, Mary. David and Mary were married in Glasgow, Scotland previous to 1742. David Watt, Sr. served in the Revolutionary War as Private in Lower Oxford Company, Chester County Pennsylvania Militia, of which the Captain was David Hays, First Lieutenant, James Fulton, Second Lieutenant, Arthur Andrews. It was a Company of the Second Battalion, commanded by Colonel Evan Evans.

Pa. Archives, Fifth Series, Vol. V, page 525, Second Series, Vol. XIV, page 104.

This Company was with Washington at Trenton. The children of David Watt, Sr., and his wife, Mary, were: Susan, born 1743, married Faulkner; Martha, born 1745, married Robert Cunningham; David, Betsy, John, born 1753, married first Elizabeth Calvin, second Margaret Culla.

Robert Cunningham-2 and his wife, Martha Watt, moved to what is now Adams County, Pa., and located on a farm about five miles South of the present town of Gettysburg, about the year 1770. Robert Cunningham-2 served in the Revolutionary War with the following Record:

Robert Cunningham, appointed Lieutenant in First Pennsylvania Regiment, August, 1776, succeeding Lieut. Dick.

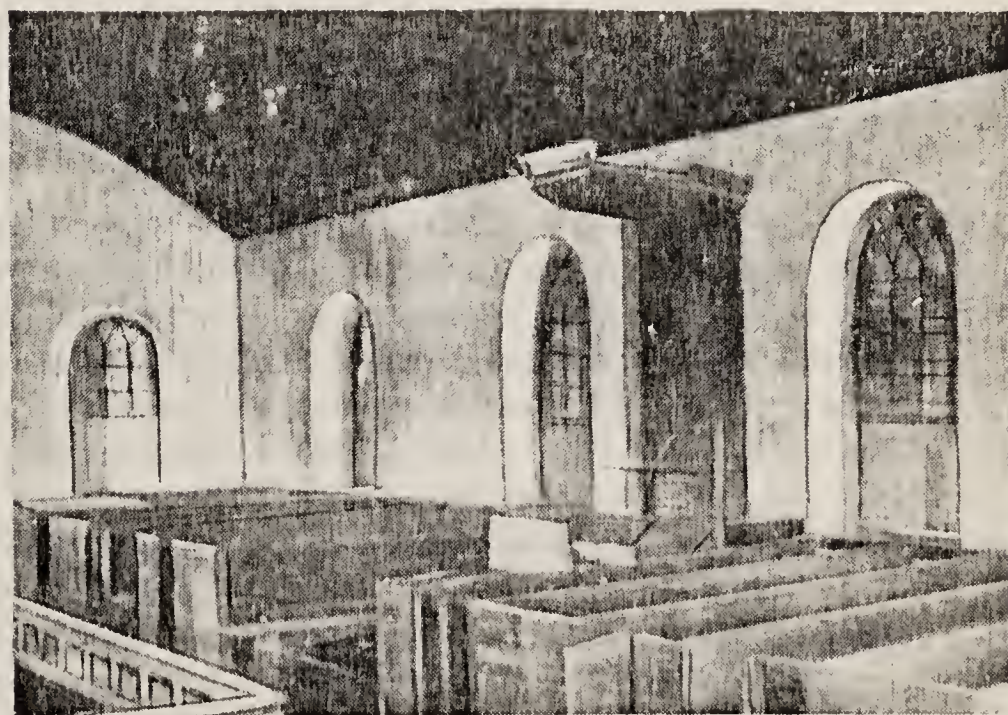

Robert Cunningham, Lieutenant in Captain Abram Scott's Company, Seventh Associate Battalion, Alexander Lowery Lieutenant Colonel. This Battalion returned August 26, 1780. See Pennsylvania Archives, Second Series, Vol. XIII, page 370 and Vol. X, page 330.

Robert Cunningham-2 and Martha Watt were married in 1768. Robert was very skillful with his hands. A few pieces of his handicraft are still preserved, among them is a good toned violin.

Robert Cunningham-2 and his wife, Martha Watt, had six children: John-3, Elizabeth-3, Susan-3, David-3, James-3, Robert-3.

Robert Cunningham-2 and his wife Martha Watt, are buried in "The Cunningham Row," in Old Marsh Creek Graveyard near Gettysburg. Five generations of the family sleep in this plot.

Robert Cunningham-2 and his wife Martha, with their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, were members of The "Hill" Church in Adams County. This Church was Associate Reformed, later through a merger with other similar branches, was known as the United Presbyterian Church. The Hill Church had two noted pastors during Robert Cunningham's-2 life. First, the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, who, in addition to his pastoral work, had established the first classical school for boys west of the Susquehanna. Second, the Rev. Charles G. McClain who, during the war of 1812 preached a fiery patriotic sermon to his congregation one Sunday morning, and in the afternoon marched with the men of his church to the defense of Baltimore, threatened by the British Fleet.

The will of Robert Cunningham-2 is preserved in the Archives of Adams County in Gettysburg, and is as follows:

In the name of God Amen. I Robert Cunningham of Liberty Township, Adams County, and State of Pennsylvania, yeoman, being in helth of body and perfect mind and memory, thanks to be given to God for it. First I gave and bequeath to my dear and well deserving wife Martha Cunningham a good bed and plenty of bedding and as much as she choses of the copbord and kitchen furniture and the second choice of the hors cretures her saddle and bridle one cow and six sheep but as these catle will be too costly for her to keep and too cumbersome to an old woman to work for, and with, I would advise her to sell them at the vandue, and the money got for them is at her own disposal. And as soon as my estate is sold real and personal and money for it collected by my Executors (hereafter named) my Executors shall put to interest for her one thousand dollars with good security the interest thereof to be paid to her yearly during her natural life the interest for her use and support and it shall be at her own disposal, But the thousand Dollars principle shall be disposed of as hereafter directed—

Now I have indavoured to be plain in all the devises and I hope and trust that no dispute will arise concerning them, But if it should be otherwise, from the want of Legall Expression or terms which is usual in Law, my will and Direction expressly is that all disputs (if any should arise) shall be decided by three impertial and intelegent men known for there probity and good understanding two to be chosen by the disputants each having the choice of one, and a third chosen by these two—which three men so chosen shall unfettered by Law or Legal Constructions, Declare the sence of the Testators intentions, and such decision is to all intents and purposes to be as binding on the parties as if it had been given in the Supreme Court of the United States—

And Lastly I constitute and apoint my soninlaw Samuel Cobean and my son James Cunningham Executors of this my last will and testament, and in witness of all and of each of the things herein contained I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of July in the year of our Lord one-thousand eight hundred and fourteen
